For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Gal. 5:14)

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Jesus sums up all the law into two commands: Love God and love others. To Love is to fulfill the whole law. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Gal. 5:14)

The Apostle Paul writes "For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.(Romans 13:9, 10) And in 1 Corinthians 16:14, Let all that you do be done in love.

The following table of Bible passages help us to understand how much emphasis the Scriptures place on our obligation as Christians to love and care for one another.

- |                 |                                                                                                                                          |
|-----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Leviticus 19:11 | "Do not steal. Do not lie. Do not deceive one another."                                                                                  |
| John 13:14      | Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. [meaning to humbly serve one another] |
| John 13:34      | "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.                                          |
| John 13:35      | By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."                                                           |
| Romans 12:10    | Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves.                                                         |
| Romans 12:16    | Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.         |
| Romans 13:8     | Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law.          |

- Romans 14:13 Therefore let us stop passing judgment on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in your brother's way.
- Romans 15:7 Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.
- Romans 15:14 I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another.
- Romans 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss.
- 1 Cor. 1:10 I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought.
- Galatians 5:13 You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love.
- Ephesians 4:2 Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.
- Ephesians 4:32 Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.
- Ephesians 5:19 Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord,
- Ephesians 5:21 Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.
- Colossians 3:13 Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.
